■■ KAVACH AI — Security Incident Response Report

Report ID: REP-A9E5971A | Incident Ref: INC-3EE056 | Generated: 2026-11-03 16:19:35 UTC

Incident Title:	Financial Fraud Detected (Medium Risk)
Assigned Analyst:	SOC Analyst 1
Investigation Status:	Under Review
Assessed Severity:	Medium
Calculated Risk Score:	48.0 / 100 (Explainable Rule Engine)
Detected Language:	EN

Audio & Conversation Transcript

"Urgent alert regarding your bank transaction. Suspicious debit attempted. Transfer Rs 50,000 to safe government verification account immediately or face arrest."

Detected Social Engineering Tactics & Evidence

Threat Category	Matched Evidence	Points	Tactic Explanation
Urgency and Threats	`immediately or face`	+15.0	Caller imposes manufactured panic, extreme urgency, or threats of arrest, service cancellation, or asset freeze.
Financial Fraud	`transfer rs`	+25.0	Caller requests routing funds into a 'safe verification account', security deposit, customs release fee, or suspicious refund process.

Actionable Defensive Recommendations

- Never disclose OTP, UPI PIN, or banking passwords.
- End suspicious calls and independently verify via official numbers.
- Report cybercrime incidents immediately to National Helpline 1930.

Analyst Investigation Notes

Auto-generated SOC incident from voice scan. Risk score: 48.0/100. Tactic categories: Financial Fraud, Urgency and Threats. [2026-11-03 16:19:35 UTC] Verified suspect claiming CBI officer.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: KAVACH AI is an AI-assisted decision-support system, not a guaranteed fraud detector. Threat scores and tactic classifications are algorithmic recommendations based on acoustic speech transcription and social-engineering heuristics. This report is intended for security operations centre analysts and authorized investigators. In case of emergency or financial theft, report immediately to Indian Cybercrime Reporting Portal (https://cybercrime.gov.in) or call the Cyber Helpline at 1930.