■■ KAVACH AI — Security Incident Response Report

Report ID: REP-5691BD02 | Incident Ref: INC-DBAFDF | Generated: 2026-11-06 08:28:55 UTC

Incident Title:	Authority Impersonation Detected (High Risk)
Assigned Analyst:	SOC Analyst 1
Investigation Status:	Under Review
Assessed Severity:	High
Detection Mode:	HYBRID (Rules: 53.0 | ML: 92.2 - Class: SCAM, Conf: 84.3%)
Calculated Risk Score:	70.6 / 100
Detected Language:	HI

Audio & Conversation Transcript

"I am Inspector Sharma from CBI. You are under digital arrest warrant."

Detected Social Engineering Tactics & Evidence

Threat Category	Matched Evidence	Points	Tactic Explanation
Authority Impersonation	`cbi`	+20.0	Caller claims to represent law enforcement, intelligence, or judicial bodies (CBI, Police, Cyber Cell, ED, Customs, Court).
Digital Arrest Patterns	`under digital arrest`	+25.0	Caller imposes continuous video interrogation, claims victim is under 'Digital Arrest', and threatens physical apprehension if video call drops.

Actionable Defensive Recommendations

- Never disclose OTP, UPI PIN, or banking passwords.
- End suspicious calls and independently verify via official numbers.
- Report cybercrime incidents immediately to National Helpline 1930.

Analyst Investigation Notes

Auto-generated SOC incident from voice scan. Mode: HYBRID. Risk score: 70.6/100. Tactic categories: Authority Impersonation, Digital Arrest Patterns. [2026-11-06 08:28:55 UTC] Verified suspect claiming CBI officer.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: KAVACH AI is an AI-assisted decision-support system, not a guaranteed fraud detector. Threat scores and tactic classifications are algorithmic recommendations based on acoustic speech transcription and social-engineering heuristics. This report is intended for security operations centre analysts and authorized investigators. In case of emergency or financial theft, report immediately to Indian Cybercrime Reporting Portal (https://cybercrime.gov.in) or call the Cyber Helpline at 1930.